Letter of Intent to Collaborate
Between KO Harvest Ltd and Afrikabal

To: AFRIKABAL

Date: [10-05-2025]

Dear Tejiri and the Afrikabal Team,

We are pleased to formally express our intent to collaborate with Afrikabal as a strategic partner. Given our scale of operations and active supply of grains and cash crops to institutional clients across the region, we believe that Afrikabal's platform with its transparency, traceability, and operational efficiency aligns with our vision for growth and sustainability.

Through KO Harvest Ltd, we propose to:

- Bring our current transactions onto the Afrikabal platform.
- Introduce our extensive network of buyers and suppliers to the platform.
- Contribute an estimated trade volume of approximately [REDACTED] over the next 12 months through our direct and indirect activities.
- Facilitate the onboarding of additional partners from our ecosystem to further enhance the platform's reach and adoption.

We aim to achieve the following specific benefits through this partnership:

1. Enhanced transparency and traceability of all our trade transactions, strengthening trust with clients and institutional partners.
  2. Increased operational efficiency, by leveraging Afrikabal's digital workflows to reduce manual processes and administrative overhead.
  3. Improved market intelligence and insights, by accessing Afrikabal's verified data to inform better strategic and tactical decisions.
  4. Access to a broader, verified network, enabling us to unlock new markets, partnerships, and revenue streams.
  5. Stronger positioning in the regional and institutional supply chain, as a forward-thinking, digitally integrated partner.

We kindly request that you advise us on the next steps for onboarding and integration, as we are eager to begin this collaborative journey and contribute meaningfully to Afrikabal's mission.

We appreciate your consideration and look forward to working closely with your team to achieve our shared goals.

Confidentiality Notice:

This Letter of Intent is a confidential, non-binding expression of interest to collaborate, and does not constitute an official partnership agreement or legally enforceable contract. All terms, conditions, and obligations will be discussed and documented in subsequent formal agreements.
